Michigan Military and Veteran Hall of Honor to Induct 2024 Class

Lansing, MI - September 5, 2024 – The Michigan Military and Veteran Hall of Honor will host its 2024 induction ceremony on Friday, October 25, at the Michigan History Museum in Lansing. This year's ceremony will honor six distinguished military service members and six veterans who have demonstrated exceptional civic and community contributions.

2024 Military Inductees:

Edgar Culbertston
Oliver Dillard
Michael Hanks
Andy Kubik
Karl Richter
Harry Stewart

2024 Veteran Inductees:

Michael Peck
Robert Secrist
Stephanie Shannon
Robert Smith
Guy Stern
Bruce McDonald

The induction ceremony is a momentous occasion that formally recognizes the remarkable service of Michiganders in the U.S. Armed Forces and the outstanding civic contributions of veterans within their communities. Invited dignitaries include the Governor of Michigan, the Adjutant General of the Michigan National Guard, Michigan's U.S. Senators, and the Chair of the Michigan Military and Veterans Hall of Honor Board of Directors.

The event will showcase banners commemorating each inductee, providing excellent photo opportunities for the media, visitors, inductees, and their families. Inductees or their surviving families will be presented with the specially designed Michigan Military and Veterans Hall of Honor Medal, a State of Michigan tribute document signed by key state officials, and congratulatory letters from Michigan's U.S. Senators.
